Dear Parents and Students,

Welcome to the new school year! My name is Matthew Hagan and I feel very blessed to be apart of this school and am looking forward to a great year! I am very excited to get to know both the students and the parents this year. If you ever need to talk with me, my email address is included below. You may also see me after school or set up an appointment to speak with me at a more convenient time.

Starting next week the homework for the week will be posted on Renweb, be sure to check in next week's Ram Review for instructions on how to access it (Monday's homework will be handed out in class). I will also be in contact with you via email throughout the year. If you have any questions or concerns about this please let me know.

Sincerely

Matthew Hagan
