Ocean Theme

I hope you are enjoying our classroom that has "transformed" into an ocean.
The fish market is open and the children love selling crabs, fish and lobsters.

Reading in the classroom

Parent or special person reading in the classroom has been wonderful for the children. Reading books to children gives them a life-long love of literature, laughter, companionship and preparation for independent reading.
Preschool books offer predictable text, oral language development, rhyme, sequencing, attention to sound, imagination, ways to express ourselves, phonemic awareness, and picture study to name a few concepts. Read books with your child(ren) over summer!
